Whitney and Half Dome are mountains that I have climbed. I feel that making it to the top of these mountains has made me a stronger person. Having been to the top of Mt. Whitney, which was extremely challenging, makes me feel like I can accomplish anything. I included Plumeria flowers because they are one of my favorites. I love the way they smell. They remind me of tropical places like Hawaii. I included the ocean photo and the Endless summer poster because I enjoy surfing. Jack Johnson is one of the artists that I enjoy listening to and I also like the tree artwork on the CD cover. The globe represents travel which I like to do whenever I get the chance.
